

Buddah Lake Irrigators' Association

15 Dandaloo Street
PO BOX 84
PHONE: 68887420

TRANGIE NSW 2824

FAX: 68887205

To Whom this May Concern

Trading Rules for Buddah Lake Irrigators' Association (BLIA) members

- All members can transfer their water entitlements off BLIA on a permanent basis however must pay the exit fee and leave a loss factor behind of 5.78%, set by Sustainable Soils Management, so as not to affect remaining members' right to irrigate and a Deed of Covenant is entered into at no cost to remaining members
- All members can trade there water within BLIA at no charge as long as the section of channel has the delivery capacity and a Deed of Covenant between the increasing member, decreasing member and BLIA is entered into at no cost to remaining members
- All members can trade there entitlement on a temporary basis either within or outside BLIA at any time. For and internal transfer members must notify BLIA office of their intension by fax or email with number of megalitres and who is to receive it. For an external transfer they must comply with State Water transfer rules and complete a 71T application and pay the necessary State Water Fee